WRESTLERS' WRANGLE

FISHING IN LAKE RUMORED GOOD!

By Manny Scales

This year it is rumored that fishing will be at its best, so says Uriah Duzz, the famous fishocologist from Rural. He has predicted that more campers will catch fish this year than any other year in Camp history.

Many reports have already been filed with the news departement one of which the Waupaca Tribune picked up.

Kal Larson and Jim Colegrove pulled into the shores of Lake Stratton with a 12" Northern Pike they claimed was caught in this lake!

WP: The horse-shoe was filled with many spectators as Waupaca Square Gardins Wrestling had its first match.

Tense, anxious cabins 8-CIT's watched as Vince DePinto refereed the some 8 matches for the evening. Among those competing were Larry Stern and Ralph Saunders, in a good tag-team match, Brad and Brian Cohen vs. Barry Craven and Chris Clotiaux.

Among the hottest matches were the tag teams of Paul Rosengarten and Steve Alex vs. Motor-mouth Rosenblatt & Ken Saunders. The highlite matches of the evening were Cabin 8 challenging their entire cabin councillors and of course Raymond "mack" Krysh vs. Gary Silbar and Paul Rosengarten.

CIT'S ENJOY TRIP

By M rk Weber

Right after lunch on Tuesday, the CIT's went on the first trip of the season. They departed for the clear blue lakes and rivers of Weyauwega.

The trip, which covered 15 miles of rough currents and whitewater lasted six hours and culminated in a dinner at a selected campsite down-stream.

Wayne Towne and Paul Hoffman officiated and Ray Krysh came along, too. He highlighted the wet portions of the trip by helping the other CIT's enjoy the charming river while out of their canoes.

The CIT's then went to the Weyauwega Dairy where home-made Ice Cream was enjoyed by all. During the meal, Ray and Warren were called "Daddy and Uncle" and raised many eyebrows of other patrons in the restaurant.

"Old Blue" the faithful trip bus, made it round trip without a stitch and all were rumored to have had a better time that they thought they'd have originally.

All the other cabins in camp will probably be fortunate enough to go on this trip or other trips like this during the summer, so all campers are encouraged to practice their canoeing and paddling techniques.

SPECIAL WATERFRONT PROGRAM EXPECTED!!

By "Flipper" Snorkey

A special program is planned for the evening program tonight and Friday night, Warren Metzdorff announced to the Waupaca Tribune today.

This program, like previous ones will involve the entire camp on the waterfront for two nights.

Some of the special events will include Inner tube races, Chicken fights, Greased watermelon races, Tugs of war, gunnall jumping, leapfrog relays and many many more activities that should be both exciting and challenging.

Older Campers might remember last years waterfront program, Beached Pirate's Show of Shows" and other related activities.

When asked for comment Warren said, "Well, Warren's Wonderful Waterfront is in business once again!"

THE PAPERS SEEK WRITERS AND CONTRIBUTORS!

The two issues of the Waupaca papers seek writers to report all the news of camp. Any camper, counsellor or maintenance man in camp is encouraged to write for the paper. Funny stories, jokes, human interest articles, science articles, class reports or other writings will gladly be published if given to the Editor or Publisher.

SPORTS GALORE FOR FIRST FOUR

By Larry Levin

Competition teams for the first four weeks of camp were released yesterday and play began today.

This season there will be four divisions. The first is the Continental League made up of players from Cabin 15. There will also be four teams in the American League, six in the National, and four in the Federal League.

Teams from the American League are made up of players from Cabins 1-4, while 5-12 comprise the National League and the CIT Village makes up the Federal League.

Team names in the American league include Freebie's Beans, coached by Ken "Soul" Robbins, Waupaca Pros, coached by Steve Dexter, Pinball Wizards led by Bob Guthrie, and the Mdmn coached by Jon Rydz.

National league teams are the Stingers, led by the Paul Koehler, Dictionaries coached by Mike Kennedy, Zilchers led by Bob Marks, Cyclones headed up by Larry Levin and Scott Hanson coaches the Jaguars.

Program director Ron Lavine said there is a possibility the teams in the National league will be split into two divisions to keep competition high in the league.

Federal teams include the Pure Beef Wieners coached by Craig Bernfield. The souz is coached by Paul Rosengarten, Steve Alex coaches the Slime and the Super dips are headed by Gary Silbar.

A new bulletin board has been put in outside of the mess hall to list the current status of all teams. Ron encourages all campers to @Look With Your Eyes and Not With Your Hands!"
