

JULY, 6/1976

Dear Paul,

Larry Gordon and I were just thinking about you and those happy days of Dramatics...
... So we've decided to drop you a line. — catch it, it might break when it hits the ground (a bit of humor).

We were looking forward to seeing you this year even though we did doubt you'd be here as most doubted that I would be here. As for Larry he's always here — and this year with his 9 year brother Tony (a real cutie).

I am C.I.T in cabin 3 and Larry has 4.

As for happening at camp, Mike Chauvin is here on a conditional contract (minus Zalay) - the forth of July celebration consisted of going around with your cabin

to many events for $3\frac{3}{4}$
hours.

Complaints - No C.I.T.
DRAMATICS!

Rick Bassman and Kal
Larson are here, which is another surprise - Rick says, "I'm just trying to milk out one more year."

Why didid you call me
like you said at the re-union?!

Enough of this spen at the memend jokky-write
room - Ralph Sanders
