Yes, the clear blue waters of Lake Stratton irrigated the largest project in recorded history at Camp during the past few days. Engineers from many cabins helped to create a dam and reservoir system larger than Hoover Dam right on the beaches of our own Lake Stratton.

Department of the Interior Secretary Outta Clouds said that he was coming in from Washington just to inspect the project. Local officials were unsure of his travel plans, however. Perhaps he will stay in the new 175 room Hyatt Waupaca recently opened to host the 1979 Tractor Pull Competition at Wild Rose.

The boys involved are pictured above in one of many structural tests designed to test the strength and durability of Strattonius Sand, a new building material that may rival concrete by the end of the decade.

CHIPMUNKS ADOPTED BY NATURE CENTER
By David Pine

On Saturday, Adam Moore caught the first chipmunk. He set his trap before competition in the woods and used salad croutons as bait. Adam named the baby chipmunk, Charlie. If you would like to see him look in the red cage. (More in Nature Column).

INDIANS VISIT SHORES OF STRATTON

By Paul Chanan

On Wednesday after Star Wars competition, Capture the Flag, the camp was called to the waterfront. When the camp arrived everyone saw torches and fire in the channel separating Big Stratton from our own Little Stratton. For the next twenty minutes the Camp was visited by a friendly tribe of Indians looking for warmth and food. Of course Camp Waupaca was generous enough to provide a fire and a place to rest. Here with an insiders story is Paul Chanan's report:(Editor)

A few kids were picked as Indians by the staff. Indians were called to Cabin "D" in the CIT Village as, "Mr. Smith, please come to the CIT Village." Rob Garowitz and Brenda Wanty were making the costumes for everyone. We all put on feathers and hurried down to lake Stratton where the canoes were ready. In the meantime the staff, Gordy, John, Jeff P, Pau Rob, Rick, Brenda & Kathy prepared the fire, the make-up & the torches.

The head boat with Chief Warshauer headed out and as he came towards shore he shot fire arrows into the sky. John, Gordy and the others had torches. As the canoes got closer to shore, (more on page TWO) we could see Joel Feinstein, Jeff Veltman, Scott Silverman, Paul Chan-an, Adam Fleischer, and Gary Schotz dressed as Indian bucks. Everyone was serious and the canoes landed.

Mike Lurie met the Chief and welcomed him to the friendly shores. The Chief said he needed fire to warm his heart and to warm the hearts of his dwindling tribe. He explained that at one time many Indians had roamed the plains and lakes that are now Wisconsin and that the white man had taken much from him.

Lurie, who seemed a bit afraid of the Indian Chief, offered some wood so they could get warm. The Medicine Man and the Warrior (Adams & Schmitt) tried to light the fire with magic and fear but to no avail. A lowly buck did light the fire (Scott Silverman) and amazed the entire tribe and Camp with his spells. The chief told Buck Silverman that someday he would lead the tribe. The Warrior told a short story and the Indians danced for a while then got into their canoes after promising to return. They want to visit again but next time want to speak with the pioneers who lived on the land in the 1800's.

HAPPY CITS BY Donny Schwartz

It was Wednesday, July 11 that the CITs & JCs took on Cabin 15 and 14 All Stars. The umpire was Frogman "Is he out?" Warshauer. CITs and JCs jumped ahead with four runs. The All-Stars got two runs and thought they had a comeback. But nooooo. After that, they were helpless. The CITs kept scoring and scoring. The final score was 17-2 favor of the CITs & JCs (Zitfaces).

A small wager of 3 pizzas (large) was tendered several nights later.

CABIN NIGHT By Arthur Reinstein

Last Thursday night was abig Cabin Night. Cabins 11, 14, & 15 went to town. Cabin 11 went to the waterfall, the beach in Waupaca, miniature golfing, pizza at Merrimacs, bowling and to a girls softball game then to the Dairy Queen. I don't know how in the world they did all that!

Cabin 14 went to Stevens Point and had Pizza then saw Alien, the movie, then to Dairy Queen. Cabin 15 also went to Stevens P Point, except they went to Harde for dinner.

Back at Camp Cabins One & Two had a softball game then went swimming. Two won 12-11. Cabin 4 went canoeing, while Five went waterskiing. Cabin seven did something different. They went to look for a car that Paul W. would drive in a demo derby. After that they had dinner on a small island in the middle of a pond and went innertubing down the Waupaca River.

Cabin Nine had mini-bikes & went swimming. Everyone had fun!

COUNSELLOR CORNER --JOE MORAN

By Scoop Lapins

Joe Moran: Guitar player, swimming instructor, camp counsellor! Joe was interviewed by me at the waterfront.

Q. How did you find out about Camp?

A. Well, my watersafety coach made an announcement in class one day and asked if anyone would be interested in teaching swimming up in Wisconsin. Of course I had some experience in summer camps and thought this would be a perfect way to spend a summer. I like teaching kids and I love the out of doors. I met Mike Euer in Missouri, had an interview and here I am at camp.

Q. Do you have any plans of getting married?

A. Not right now.

Q. You seem to play the guitar well. How long have you been playing?

A. Since forth grade and I have liked it so much I have continued since then. I was in a rock group, Quintessence.

Q. What are your plans after camp?

A. I plan to go back to Southeast Missouri State University.

Q. What is your major?

A. I have two majors. One is physical education and the other is psychology.

A. Well, thank you, Joe. See you later.

RADAR BLEEP REPORTED-By I. M. Greek
