CABIN 1

by Louis Robinson

I think we've had a very good cabin this year. We've got along very well and worked as a team together. Chuck and Dennis are the best counselors we could ever have. I hope if we come next year we can have counselors like them. We've had fights, but of course we've made up.

We've won inspection two times and went to the root beer stand. It's been fun on days like Frank Buck Day, Gold Rush Day and all the others days we work together.

CABIN 2

by Jeff Rubin

Our cabin has had lots of fun this year.

Our cabin's name is secret. The initials are the J.L.A. As it's near the end of the camp season, we'll reveal our cabin name. It is the Justice League of America.

We are famous for our super inspections!

All the kids in our cabin have nicknames. They are Rubini, Kaiser-monkey, Garfinkle, Plural Fogel, Sloberg, and We Adore Treadore. Don't we all sound loveable? Well, we are!

Our counselors are the best in camp. They are Sam Arnold and Paul Shuckett.

CABIN 3

by Tom Friedman

We have lots of fun in our cabin. Such as playing games. Some of the games are flinch, freeze, and king of the mountain. We also have thumb fights.

Our counselors are Harry and Hart, and we think they're the best in camp. We get treats and stories.

Our cabin name is the C.C.D. We were scaring everyone because they didn't know what it meant. It stands for Crazy, Crazy Days.

We have special names for campers in our cabin. They are Lordy Jeff, Gold Pillberger, Scott Big, Steve Shorter, MIMI Bag, and Feedman.

We think this was one of the best years of camp.

CABIN 4

by The Kids.

This year Cabin 4 was the magical cabin of camp. Its inhabitants were unusual though not unique; that is, this cabin is one of the few in camp history to be composed completely of Honor Boy material, as well as loaded with athletes.

Our habits, too, are different from most. For instance, most cabins have bed time stories after taps. Not us! We listen to records on a portable phonograph and have "time guessing" contests. But don't get us wrong. We conform in certain ways, like being sloppy, playing Sahara Desert in our bunks, being late to classes and stealing Halavah.

Our cabin motto is "If at first you don't succeed, strip the bed and start again."

Our nicknames are Sudy Sudakoff, Dickie Garb, Flashing Steel Musinaw, Herie Friedman, Bones Wengenhaff, Josephine Recht, Dutch Rose, Iceberg Goldberg and Kettle Drums Kettlor.

Our cabin baseball record is two wins and one loss.

Our counselors are Al Steigerwald and Terry Rifkin. Oh boy, could we say some things about them...Why, I remember the time...

Well, here's hoping we're all here in '64.

CABIN 5

by Paul Ringel and Don Gerowitz

This year we have been having a lot of fun. For instance we were at the Rural Rapids on cabin night, had an early morning fishing trip we've had night swim parties and water balloon fights. To add to the fun we have had such extra special days like Frank Pack Day, Frontier Day, Hound and Hare Day, Gold Rush Day, Pied Piper Day, and the greatest part of camp, the Blue and White War which involves special events. Our counselor, Ron Winter, caught a green snake and a field mouse. We think Al Serkin and Ron Winter are the nicest counselors in the world. Every day we usually indulge in a vigorating sport such as baseball, basketball, volleyball, or soccer.

CABIN 6

by Pete Sobe

I like my cabin because everyone cooperates in the cabin and we get along with other kids. In the competitive sports we have been doing very well and have won most of the cabins we have played in baseball. We also won one cabin inspection. Our two counselors are Barry Shanoff and Gary Rand. One is co-waterfront director, and one swam 20 lakers which is the now camp record. Since I've been here this cabin has been in tiptop shape, which is the way a cabin should be.

CABIN 7

by Dave Wortman and Mickey Kalensky

With Dave Allardyce and Steve Kuklin as counselors, we had a lot of fun this year. Together we went on fishing trips and camping trips. We had water fights and ganged up on our counselors, but it was all just to have fun.

On one of our cabin fishing trips, after waking up at 5:00 A.M., we caught 21 fish. During the first four weeks Dave Allardyce took us for a special swim in the evening. This half hour swim was a lot of fun.

One evening, Mickey Kalensky decided to sleep in the telescopes. With him went Dave Wortman, Dave Ream and Don Shearn. At this time Howie Friedman and Kerry Flom were on the Early Bird camping trip. We had a good time but it was very cold.

It has been a year full of fun and enjoyment for us.

CABIN 9

by Dave Kamm

The members of Cabin 9 have been fortunate in more ways than one. For instance, the boys in Cabin 9 share the newest cabin in camp.

The campers in Cabin 9 all have been absorbing all there is to take from camp. We are also very fortunate to have two wonderful counselors who try to give us all they have so we enjoy that much more out of this camp season. I think during this camp season out of many things we have learned is how to live together with our people and how to share the responsibility of taking care of a cabin. During cabin inspections we try to function as a team with our individual jobs.

We all think that this year has been great and we all hope to be back together again next summer.

CABIN 10

by Jeff Denenberg

A new cabin and new cabinmates were highlights of the 1963 year for Cabin 10. On June 23, Dan (Brillo) Lyon, Mark (Mauk) Ringel, Jeff (Jaydee) Denenberg, Mitch (Mox) Ez, Steve (Muscles) Davis, Al (Schoenfeld) Schaeffer, and Marty (K-musklander) Lack.

One fine day we moved into our new cabin. It was exciting and a relief. Although we woke up to the banging of the plumber's equipment and the carpenter's hammers, it was still a great feeling to be in our cabin.

In the fifth week Steve Koenig and Bob Turffs joined our merry band. We gained a record player and it was like home.

On the sixth week we lost our track star, Steve Davis, as he moved to Cabin 8 as a counselor. Then one night at about 7:30, we learned we had another cabin mate arriving. In a 5 minute crash clean-up we prepared for our new friend. He turned out to be Ace Bealle, an import from California.

During the eight weeks of camp we underwent a leadership program taught by Bob Krohn.

Cabin 10 would have to evaluate the past year as "just plain fun!"

EARLY BIRDS

On July 29, the Camp Waupaca Early Birds set out for their beautiful campsite. This year, a new campsite was enjoyed by the men. It was Pleasure Island on Lake Winnebago. This particular area is world famous for its wonderful fishing, and has been described in both Field and Stream and Holiday, both excellent magazines for the fisherman.

Pleasure Island is privately owned and a camper's dream. It is excellent for hiking and boating in addition to the over-plentiful fish.

There is an old saying that "The way to a bird's heart is through his gullet," and with the excellent food received, the birds' hearts were full. Steaks were on the menu, as well as hot dogs, hamburgers and hunter's stew.

There are still openings for next year's Early Bird so if you don't want to miss out on a wonderful trip ask your parents to sign you up right away.

On the next two pages are found the works of the future Shakespeares, Chaucers, and Salingers. Keep these pages in your library. One day they may bring a handsome price as the first works of the modern masters.

Dear Editor,

I like my cabin because, we all like each other and have lots of fun together. Sometimes we call each other names, but just for fun, and we all laugh. We all like to play baseball and we're all good, and when we lose we're all good sports about it. And when we win we always shake the other team's hands.

I wouldn't be in any other cabin than our Cabin 9.

Barry Goldberg
Cabin 9

Dear Editor,

Our cabin has a short wave radio. Our counselor plays the guitar. We also get treats of different kinds. Most of my friends are here, besides, we beat Cabin 3 in baseball 14 to 20 and we lost to Cabin 7 15 to 0.

So you see why we like our cabin best.

Howard Friedman, Chicago
Cabin 4

Dear Editor,

I like my cabin because it is pleasant to live in. It is usually clean and at night everyone can sleep free of bugs. The counselors are nice to be with and one plays guitar.

I like my cabin because it gives me a feeling of being on my own away from city life and it is a joy to meet new boys and get to know them well.

In our cabin everyone knows their job and does it well. There is never anyone who won't do his job unless there is a good reason for his not doing it. I think my cabin is nice because everyone works together as a team.

In my years at Camp Waupaca, so far this year has been the most pleasant, and I hope that when we move to a different cabin the new boys will have as good a time as I am having.

Dear Editor,

In my cabin my bed is a bottom bunk and the top bunk shades my bed from the sun. My bed is near the clothes rack where it is easy to get my clothes. Our cabin has a short wave radio. We have cities all over the States. Our counselor gives us treats like Tootsie Rolls and raisins and that's why I like my cabin.

Joseph Fecht
Cabin 4

Dear Editor,

I like my cabin because it has everything I need, and want. The reasons are we have a radio, we sometimes get candy and food from our counselors. We also get stories at night and our counselors play a few songs on their guitars too.

We have counselors that let us do almost whatever we want. We also have bathrooms. And our beds are good too.

I also like the kids in my cabin.

And I also think its the best cabin at camp.

Harold Sudakoff
Cabin 4

Dear Editor,

I like Cabin 2 because Skipper and the counselors run it. I like Paul Shuckett and Sam Arnold, the best.

I like the kids there too. I like them because I like friendly companionship, company, and a buddy to have fun with.

I like Cabin 2 alone because its warm inside when it's cold outside, and cool inside when it's hot outside.

My counselors help me to do things right and have fun.

I like Skipper because he gave me a comfortable bed.

I like Cabin 2 alot.

SPECIAL DAYS

by Jeff Denenberg

Camp is a place where learning and fun are combined. The new skills you learn are sometimes used in special days. For some of the other special days at camp only your ability to have fun is needed,

FRONTIER DAY

Frontier Day was the first special day at camp. It started with a big land rush in which each camper ran into the fields and claimed a stake. The camper then took his stake to the assayer, Barry Shanoff. At the assayer's office he found out how many points his land was worth.

This year each boy vied as part of his competition team. He competed in such events as a "Pancake Relay," "Wood Gathering," and "Earn Raising." Firebuilding was the final event.

HOBO DAY

Terry Rifkin, this year's chief hobo, led all of the vagabonds to the campsite, where a succulent meal of chili, corn bread and bug juice was devoured from tin cans by the hungry hobos. The main events of the evening were three-legged races and a water balloon toss. Then the campers with the best hobo costumes were chosen. This year Jeff Rubin and Steve Block were the winners. They were rewarded with root beer floats.

FRANK BUCK DAY

"Bring 'em back alive!" was the cry, and Frank Buck Day started at Camp Waipaca. Frogs, turtles, raccoons and elephants were among some of the animals that the campers were after. This year Cabin 8 captured a ground squirrel, and it proved to be the finishing touch on a grand total of 1,843 points, enough to win the contest. Cabin 5 was second with 1,425 points and Cabin 2 only 30 points behind with 1,395 points. Cabin 6 was rewarded with a plaque in the Mess Hall.

PIED-PIPER DAY

At flag lowering on Thursday, August 8, Paul Ringel swung down from the trees as the Pied Piper.

The Pied Piper lead the campers to the campsite where they dined on sweet corn, hot dogs, bug juice, and coconut bars for desert. After the dinner, the Waupaca tribe met for the last time of the season.

GOLD RUSH DAY

"Thar's gold in them thar hills," was the cry, and Gold Rush Day, considered by many to be the best special day of the camp season, officially began. It started with the Land Rush, with all the campers following the gold miraculously found throughout the camp. The gold was then taken to the assayer, who weighed it in and payed for it by the ounce. A good time was then had by all, as they spent their money gambling at the many concessions set up by the cabin groups. Cabin 1 won a plaque in the Mess Hall for handing in the most money at the end of the day.

WELCOME TO THE 1963 CAMP SEASON

The 1963 Camp Season is drawing to a close and it is fitting at this time to pause a moment and look back over these eight weeks of living together. We feel that this has been the finest and most rewarding season in the 13 year history of Camp Waupaca. The reason for this success can be traced to a number of sources.

First, our staff is excellent. Cooperation and teamwork is the key to every organization and relationship, but more often than not, certain personalities and individual goals clash and the "team" loses its efficiency. Not so with this staff, who man for man accepted the task of giving each boy a season that we are sure will be remembered for some time. If the old saying, "be a good example and the boys will follow," is correct, then this group of men has achieved its goal.

Another factor which makes this an excellent year is the improvement of the physical facilities. A new and bigger cabin (9 and 10) was built. A, B, C, and D were moved to provide a greater degree of privacy and a feeling of self-reliance for boys in those units; new boat moorings were built to accommodate more boats; the kitchen facilities were improved with the addition of a bigger walk-in cooler. These and many other changes made camp better than ever.

Program is a keystone in the organization of a successful camp. In this area we feel that every boy has had an opportunity to learn and grow, to achieve and profit from the variety of activities and the experience of our counselors. Surely, both counselor and camper learned together. Special all camp programs such as Gold Rush Day, Pioneer Day, Frank Buck Day, Hobo Night, and others enabled each boy to take part in large group activities. Free time allowed for individual interests and an opportunity to do many things alone.

A big item in any camp is the preparation of food. Here we feel we have the best kitchen staff available. The girls not only labor to make each meal the best, but they are considered as important as any counselor because of their contacts with the campers and their interest and participation in all programs. We feel every boy leaving will feel as sad as our girls do on that final morning.

The last, and most important element for this great season is, of course, you the camper. Without you this camp would not be the vibrant living, exciting experience it is. Without your enthusiasm, your vitality and curiosity there could be no success and this camp would be a silent wilderness, a wasteland for only a few to enjoy. Many visitors this season commented that we could not have found a finer group of youngsters if we had hand-picked each one of you, and we wholeheartedly agree. Long after you have returned to your homes, the cabins, fields, lake and woods will echo with shouts and songs you raised this year.

IN RETROSPECT

CONTINUED

And now we are packing, boarding busses, the train or plane, then home. The season is over and each person picks up where he left off in June. School - work - old friendships renewed - new tales to tell. We hope that the hard work and fun, the friendships and lessons in living together will not be forgotten. We wish everyone the best in the year ahead, and perhaps in the spring when the trees begin to blossom and the ground grows warm you will feel the strange yearning that we experience. That desire to get back to camp, to see the lake and fields. To work and then hear the cries of recognition as Camp and Counselor, Camper and Friend reunite in mutual respect and admiration for the out-of-doors, the fun and enjoyment of everything good under the sun.

Good luck and "see you soon".
