SPECIAL GOLD MEDAL FOR SPORTSMANSHIP:
John Story + Kevin Schulman

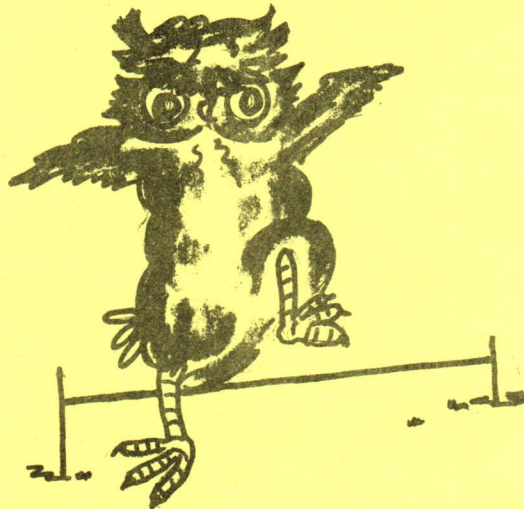

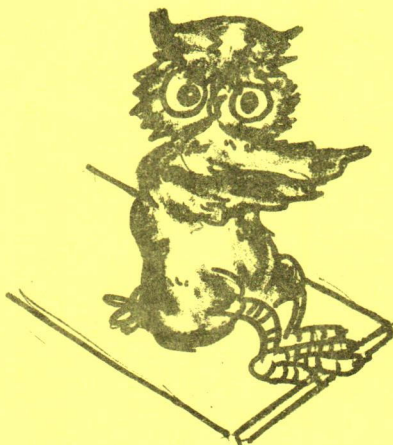

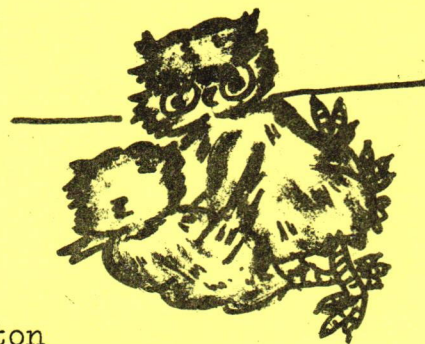

Zeus peddled from Mount Olympus only to take a plunge in deep blue Lake Stratton and the Olympics for 1977 were officially under way.

Many thanks to Ken Robbins for his portrayal of Zeus and his help with the anthems during the award ceremonies. Thanks to Mike Euer and Mike Lurie for the outstanding Olympic shirts. Thanks to Wayne Towne and Jon Juron for the fine Olympic medals.

Thanks to the officials who helped the program run smoothly. And a special thanks to the coaches: Paul, Pete, Rod, Steve, Paul, George, Mike and John - for their tireless efforts in guiding their teams through a very demanding two days of competition.

And who will ever forget those immortal words: " I AM WET!"

A new tradition takes hold at Camp Waupaca: The Sports Spectacular! A giant two day competition between East, West, North, and South that highlights the second four weeks and foreshadows the big showdown to follow in the Blue-White War.

The Sports Spectacular was a great success in 1977. Starting with the flag ceremonies at the Basketball Court and featuring the ever popular Spotlight on the Coaches, it captured the spirit of competition, Tribes, Olympics, and the War all rolled into one package.

Remember the judges lined up in front for the song judging at meal time...remember the new game: Challenge Baseball...remember the Giant Three-Station Relay...remember Cliff Hawkins winning at Musical Chairs.

Congratulations to the victorious WEST team and coaches Mike Lurie and Pete Chandler. Congratulations also to the other teams for excellent competition in a battle that went all the way down to the wire.

Line them up: Green, Yellow, Red and Blue! Who will win next year's Camp Waupaca Sports Spectacular?
