All statistics for the summer of 1980 were recorded, compiled and tabulated by the accounting firm of Price, Waterhouse and Desnet: Many thanks to Jeff Rissman (whose clerical skills are exceeded only by his typing speed - now up to almost four words per minute). Thanks also to Steve Prebish (affectionately referred to as Mr. Pop-Up by his many friends and admirers - who is also perhaps the loudest snorer east of the Pacific Ocean). Thanks to Mike Piccolo (I mean Hollobow - who would like to make it perfectly clear that he is a J.C. and not a CIT. Big Deal.) And last but certainly least, thanks to Sy Sussman (who joined the stats team during the second four weeks and with hard work and determination managed to make the group absolutely no more efficient than they were during the first four). I would also like to give a special thanks to the Program Director for being foresighted enough to save the first four week average sheets in anticipation of his statistics staff losing the records of the boys who left camp in July.

Program Director
