Tim Mukand
 Dan Shaffer

The entire camp held its breath. Tim Mukand was about to defy death in his attempt to do a barefoot beach start. Gordy checks the line - and suddenly he steals Tim's thunder. Was Tim to take such an insult lying down? Of course not! And thus started the 1980 version of Camp Waupaca's Blue - White War.

Congratulations to Big Chief Tim Mukand and Little Chief Dan Shaffer - as well as all of the members of the victorious Blue Team! As to the Whites: Big Chief Gordy Adams and Little Chief Tim Matyas have plenty to be proud of. The White Team led most of the way and proved every bit the equal of the Blues. A three minute margin of victory in the Super Relay spelled the difference between winning and losing. Both teams played with a great deal of pride and team spirit. And both teams achieved one of their main goals: playing hard and having a great time during the final week of the camp season.
