

CABIN 10:

Our counsellors were Dan Bowie and Rick Curley. The first four weeks were great! We went to town, watched Froggy - Paul - in the Demolition Derby, at the Portage County Fair. The Olympics were the spotlight event of the first four weeks. It was great. It also gave people who have good sportsmanship a chance to really use it. Good sports, are usually wasted by bad sports. All the cabin nights were fun. We did activities together. The campout the first four was fun.

We went in the woods, got lost, and had to find our way back. The campout the second four found us lost again.

To top off the first four weeks, all the people were nice and that is what really made the first four weeks great.

All the eight weekers were looking forward for the second four weekers to arrive. Everybody made new friends. We were excited about Sports Spectacular and what team we were on. It was a lot of fun. South won. Gold Rush Day was also fun. All of us are really excited about the Blue and White War. Camp was really great this year and at least I know our cabin had a terrific time.

CABIN 11:

Cabin 11 had a great counsellor - Ron Lavine - and a great C.I.T. - Karamath Kahn. The campers were: Rick Fradin, Barry Munic, Dave Thomas, Adam Fleischer, Kieth Fohrman, Donnie Schnair, Jim Goldwasser, Jeff Veltman, and Jeff Spagat.

During the summer we had a Borris GANG named after Barry Munic. Barry didn't like the name Borris and since he's 5' 8" we stopped.

Cabin night was fantastic! We went to the falls - some girl tried to pick-up Ricky Fradin, a girl's softball game, and to see the movie, "Stripes". It really was a great time.

One night Jeff Veltman leaped out of his top bunk and ran to the office and then ran right back into bed. The strange thing about this is that he was sleeping the whole time. When he woke up he didn't remember any of it.

In our cabin we had lots of nicknames like Jeff Spaget - Bein Spags, Jeff Veltman as Shmutz, Barry Munic as Boris, Adam Fleisher as Fleish, Jim Goldwasser as Toothpick, Donnie Schnair as Snair, Keith Fohrman as himself and Dave Thomas - The Beaver of Islah.

CABIN 12:

Cabin 12 had a great bunch of kids the 2nd. four. We had Andy Greenwald, Todd Zirlin, Scott Diamond, Mike Manelis, Bob Gross, Greg Prebish, Mike Fine, Jeff Dubofsky, Mike Cohen and Jeremy Perlow. We had two excellent counsellors - Phil Goldberg and our C.I.T. Eric Kaplan.

We had alot of interesting experiences in the 2nd four weeks. We had a mysterious C.I.T. coming in late at night with a Devil's Mask that scared us and we also had alot of mad Salami parties in the cabin.

The best thing we did was when Gold Rush came along. We made a bar with drinks and live shows.

For cabin night we challenged cabin 11 in a softball game. They beat us 8-0 to 9-8 but we had fun anyway.

When we went to town we had pizza at the Merrimac. Then we went to see "Stripes" starring Bill Murray. It was a good movie. Then we went to Dairy Queen for ice cream. The whole night was terrific.

Camp was great until Mike Manelis had to leave in the last weeks because of an asthma problem.

CABIN 14:

Well, we rolled in on the Greyhounds, sat in the horseshoe, and received our counsellors and campers. This first four weeks ~~we~~ had a cabin that no other cabin could beat in any way. We had as campers: Scott - Swim-a-Laker - Silverman, Marc - Darefoot and Trick Ski - Roskin, Brian - Vidal Session - Neimark, Jeremy - J.A.P. - Platt, Jeff - Eat alot - Chason, David - Bobsey Trin #1 - Barr, David - Bobsey Twin #2 - Kennedy and Jeff - Peanut Butter and Jelly - Veltman. As a JC we have Mike - Slom Ski - Hollobow and as counsellors for the first four weeks were, Phil - Mouse Trap - Goldberg and Gary - Camp Director - Nolan.

We had plenty of fun. Our cabin night was great. We went playacking and shot the pistol and shotgun at the rifle range. When we went to town we had pizza, an ice cream at the Dairy Queen, and a game of minature golf.

The second week found our cabin sleeping in the Tee Pee. We talked awhile but soon got bored and decided to run through cabin 4. We weren't allowed to sleep in the Tee Pee any more.

Some time during the second week we discovered mice. Luckily we had Phil and his knife. By the third week the mice were gone.

All things come to an end before we knew the first four weeks ended. By Roscoe - Phil moved to cabin 12, and Jeff Veltman moved to cabin 11. The next day we received Steve - The Runner - Master, Mike - Speedy - Blevit, Steve - Rubics Cube - Chanan and Scott - complain-a-lot - Serlin. We had lots of fun the second four.

During the sixth week we got a new counsellor - Frank Schlafer - he was fantastic.

On Goldrush, Brian Neimark got an idea that we do a skit of TV shows' commercials such as Brady Bunch, Three Stooges, Johnny Carson, Soap, Kalvin Kline Jeans, The Military, and Maltameal. It was such a good idea, we won.

We went to town, saw Stripes, had pizza and had a Dairy Queen. All together it was a fun summer thanks to our counsellors and our J.C.

CABIN 15:

The first weekers consisted of David Kramer - Dr. Demento, Bill Lindinch - Fearless Fosdik, and Danny Herman - The Ugliest Man in the World. The second four weekers consisted of Ricky Horwitz - Slim, Bobby Frank - Blobby, Craig Callen, Jason More - Shorty, Mitchell Goldstein - Titchell, and Mike Greenspan - Span. The eight weekers consisted of Ross Berkson - Animal, David Reinstein - Rhino, Robert Katz, and John Riff. We must not forget our counsellors Rick Poole and Perry Bovee. The eight weekers regret that Perry isn't here anymore but we are glad to welcome in a new counsellor, Joe Sommers.

We also must not forget the great Rugby game against cabin 14 during the 1st four weeks. Again, we musn't forget the great softball game against cabin 14 which ended up as a run around the mini-bike trail.

The first cabin night during the 1st four weeks we went swimming with playaks in the swimmers area, and a massive water fight resulted.

We can't forget the Poker games we had. Yes, it certainly has been a doozy of a camp season and I'm sure we will not forget it.

C.I.T. VILLAGE:

One could always tell when they were in the village, it was the messiest place in camp. Over the sound of the constant cry of, "Camper in the Village!" and Ray yelling at us to be quiet. The village was a noiseless place. We had alot of fun being there. We're all sorry to be leaving it.

Our first four weekers were Mike - The Team Flayer - Schectman, Alan Hochman, Ken - can't write this nickname in the yearbook - Lapins, Joel Fienstein, Donny Schwartz, Perry Goldberg, Eric Gould, and Gregg Richman. We also had a three week visit by Loren Roseman. Even with eight of us we only came up with two or three salutes at the flagpole. We can't wait till next year when we get to go to Shopko again, go to Dairy Queen again, and go to the immenesely large Roger's theatre to see another Cinema great.

The second four weeks - we are the C.I.T.'s so pity us. Seriously being a C.I.T. is great. The second four weeks brought nine new campers: Dan Mostovoy, David Glick, Jeff Wise, Mike Sheck, Howie Goldberg, Ken Kramer, David Goldman, Joey Berman, and Carl Rutstein.

Each cabin in the village had something to share from a fan filled room for when it was hot, to magazines to read before bed.

Going to town was great too. During the early bird the second four weekers saw "Stripes" a movie that everyone enjoyed. Everyone also enjoyed the excellent food at the Oak Wood on our last trip out.

For Gold Rush we took some advice from Paul Warshauer. "Why don't you dig up the pond and make a dunking booth," said Paul. He must have been drinking! After all it was 11:00 at night. Paul's idea didn't quite work out and everyone had to hurry and fill it before the lady from the A.C.A. came the next day. Someday we'll return the favor, Paul.

On August 7 Dan Greenstein, Parry Goldberg, Dan Mostovoy, Eric Gould, Ken Kramer, David Goldman, and Carl Rutstein went with Dick Rist and our counsellor Ray to the Porcupine Mountains in Upper Michigan. The trip lasted three days and is something all will remember.
