From horseraces on tape to the "blocks of color" to the wheel of fortune, this year's two Las Vegas Live programs had something for everyone. Campers started out with less than $2000 and tried to gamble their way toward a fortune. It was wild!

Who can forget Todd Goers broadcasting the horseraces or Andy Harris and his crazy blackjack table. Jason Belenke's eyes lit up as he won $10,000 at the computer number game, and Blake Schochet jumped six feet in the air after winning $43,000 for the evening.

Congratulations to all - even Robert Resnick (honorable Mention).

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE 1985 CAMP WAUPACA WHITE TEAM ON THEIR VICTORY IN THE SUPER RELAY TO GAIN THE HONOR OF BEING COLOR WAR CHAMPS FOR THE SUMMER!

Big Chief Craig Layne and Little Chief Andy Harris had their boys primed and ready for the final relay as did the Blue Team Chiefs Ken Saunders and Joe Wood. In one of the closest relay finishes in recent years, the White Team fire boiled their water only a matter of seconds before the Blue.

The White team took an early lead at the end of the first morning of competition, but by the mid- afternoon, the Blues took command and held a narrow lead for a day and a half. With a slight margin of victory in the songfest voting, the Whites regained the lead and held on until the relay. Then, it was the White team who sang the final watermelon cheer with Craig atop the ladder ringing the bell late on Thursday afternoon.

Congratulations to all of the Sachems, the officials, and the participants who made this year's color war a memorable and treasured experience that highlighted our summer at camp.
