

FUN!

JULY 4TH

"To arms! Two arms? Too arms??" Well, if this sounds confusing you should have seen the looks on the boys from Cabin One as Paul Revere sped by them on a Mini Bike the morning of July 4th this year!

Following close behind him was a man in a red coat, (Scott Rubin) telling all that there was nothing to worry about...the British are our friends and we should welcome them with open arms.

Assembling at the flag, we saluted our nation's birthday and paid homage to our stars and stripes. Revere led us into the Dining Hall and we were off to a great start.

Later in the day, the boys in the play set up the "Fine Arts Complex" and at 8:00 pm (sharp!) it was curtain UP on this year's festive 4th of July Pageant. The program/cast list follows on the next page.

After the play the crowds swarmed to the beach to watch the all-expense spared fireworks show led by pyrotechnic expert Warren Q. Metzdorff. After blowing up several row boats with fire crackers and charring the swimming piers, every camper received a sparkler of his own!

Into the Dining Hall again for special ice cream treats. Truly a festive day!

Production Produced & Directed by Paul W. Warshauer

Assistant Directors Ken Lapins & Rob Heath

Technical Director: John Everman

Picasso Mask Designed by Mike Jelinek

Assistant Electrical Crew: Neal Silins

Sound Engineer: Ed Schotz

Costume Support: Peter Berk

Menus designed by Gregg Feinstein

Idea for shopping cart: David Euer

Pyrotechnic display: David Weitzenfeld

Curtain Technicians: Jon Torshen

Ed Schotz

Hockey Masks donated by Campus Cycle,

Stevens Pt.

Thank you to the Stevens Point Library

for their reference skills.

ACT ONE

"Jason's Liberty"

King of England.....Mike Shea
Queen Matilda of England.....Brett Schwartz
Loyal Royal Messenger.....Ryan Jacobson
Quasimodo (of French Royal Blood)..Peter Berk
Jason (of English Royal Blood).....Jon Kully
Lippy Tea (A tea dumping Colonial).Ryan Jacobson
Nestle Hills (Ditto).....Neal Silins
Chris Lite (Ditto Ditto).....Mike Jacobs
John Hancock (Little man/big pen)..Jason Belenke
George Washington (Father, signer).Scott Macomber
Zelda Washington (Hockey player)...Scott Levine
Narrator (From Chiller Theater)....Dave Costello

ACT TWO

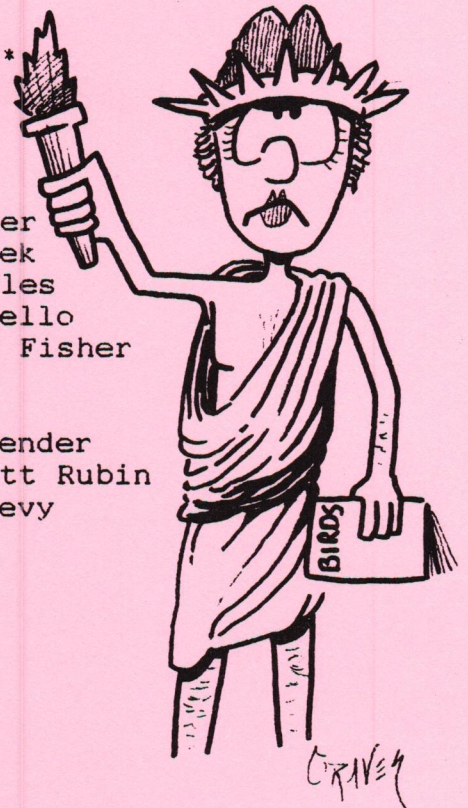

Ninja Liberty

Imelda Hung Lao (A spoiled wife)..Josh Reingold
Huanh Hung Lao (A Chinese War Lord) Don Feinstein
Tango Sansoon (A henchman).....Jeremy Parker
Sum Dum Goe (A dumb henchman).....Bobby Schwartz
John Paul Jones (A Travel Agent)...Dan Oseran
George Washington (Honest diner)...Michael Margolese
Martha Washington (Wife with indigestion) Josh Salter
Narrator (Courtesy CBS, NBC, ABC, & DDS) Marc Jaffe

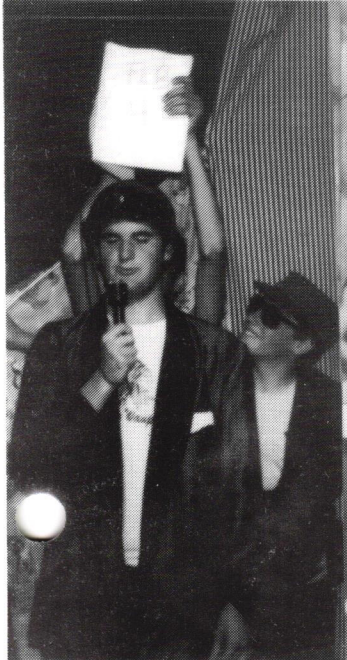

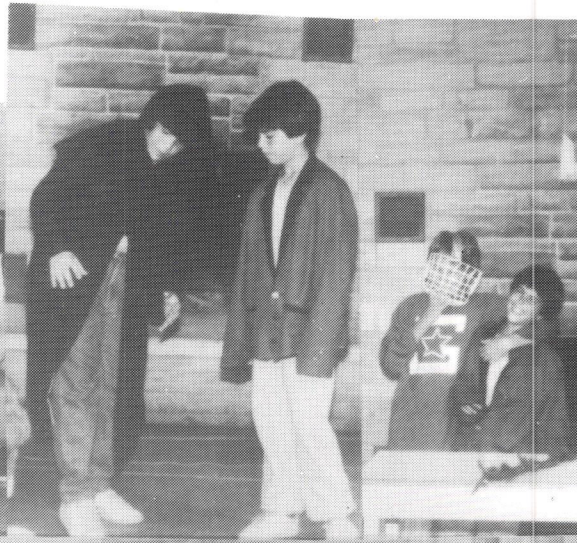

ACT THREE

Liberty's Travels

God (A VERY new interpretation).....Bruce Fisher
Lola Liberty (A Naughty girl).....Mike Jelinek
The Sphinx (An Egyptian Statue).....Jason Charles
Medusa (A serpented Demi-God Statue) Dave Costello
Discus Thrower (Ancient careless driver) Coery Fisher
Venus de Milo (Italian Leper statue).Jeff Ptak
The Thinker (French schizophrenic)..Eric Fine
George Washington (Vain unusual statue) Al Genender
Picasso's Chicago Statue (A depressed gal) Scott Rubin
Mr. Iwo (Hairdresser of Iwo, Jima, & Co) Jon Levy

4TH OF JULY PLAY

MONOPOLY

We did have the REAL Parker Brothers to help us play the Second Annual Camp Waupaca MONOPOLY GAME, although they probably wouldn't have recognized the same table game that all kids and adults are used to playing.

For our game, we used the names and locations of real areas and buildings at Camp Waupaca. Every attempt was made to keep the color groups together to make a more realistic game; The Mess Hall, Tee Pee, and Fireplace were the Red color group, Waterski Dock, Swimming Piers, and Ski Boats were the Peach color group, and so on.

John Kaulentis & Mike Christ wanted to know if they could keep the properties after they "bought" them. Scott Fox & Josh Reingold wondered why Warren's apartment wasn't listed.

After all the dust settled, we had a few winners. Everyone seemed excited and active throughout the evening including the final, frenzied minutes of trading to grab those last few monopolies. Boys were awarded extra cash bonuses for completing Monopolies, (like the real game) and were entitled to collect all rents paid to each property they owned.

Thanks to all the staff and CITs who ably assisted Mr. Monopoly and his trusted banker, Ken Lapins. Below are the winning tokens and their players. Asterisk indicates team captains.

1st Place: Car

Jason Charles*
Gregg Feinstein
Bobby Hirsch
Jeremy Parker
Jon Levy*

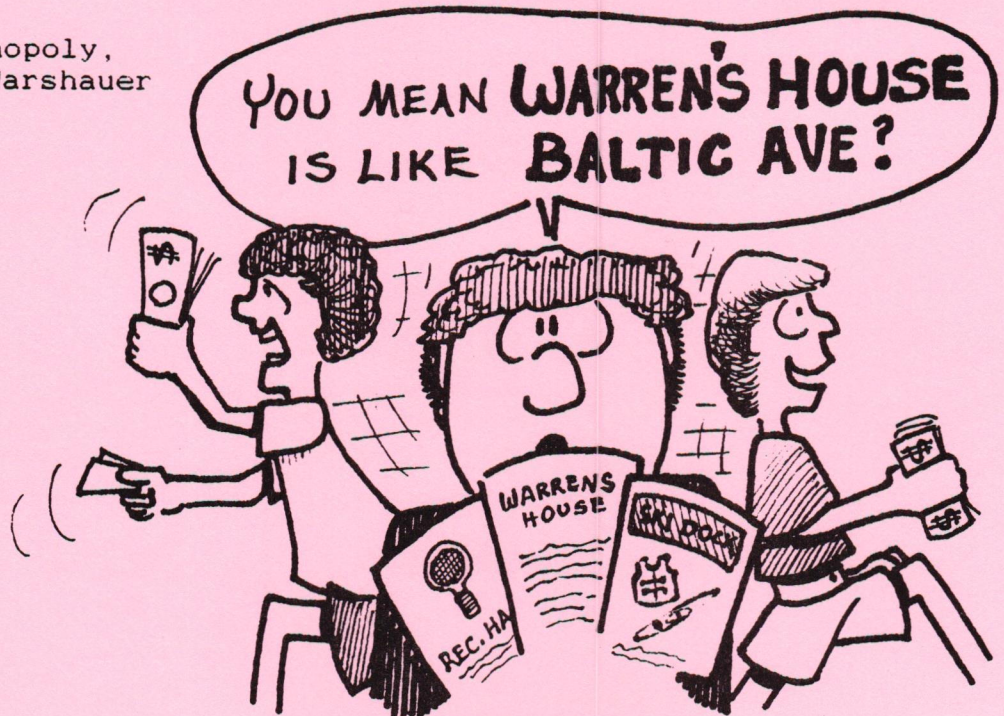

2nd Place: Gun

Adam Moschin*
Jason Abraham
Alex Jacobs
Mike Jacobs
Lee Eisner*

3rd Place: Dog

Al Genender*
Jon Kaulentis
Brett Schwartz
Jon Seed
Peter Berk*

Mr. Monopoly,
P. W. Warshauer

TRIVIA

When in the course of trivial events it becomes necessary to run a program for a second year, one must try and come up with yet more names for pies or cakes. With 170 or so campers, teams were difficult to make. Yet, in the spirit of Alexander Pope and Lewis Carroll, we persevered.

The object of our Trivial Challenge was to answer as many questions as possible from the various categories represented. For each correct answer a slice of "pie" was awarded to each team of seven or eight players, (actually the awards were tiny pieces of paper sliced like pies.) Then they were stapled to a mock cardboard pie tin.

From Literature to Camp Lore, questions baffled, amused, and challenged even the most trivial minds. Due to a little precipitation, the camp was split into two divisions. The teams really "cooked" in competition, "cutting" out the other pies & cakes, "slicing up" their adversaries, "piecing" together victories for the following teams:

Division A--Dining Hall

1st Place: Coconut

Jon Goldman
Lukas Gelman
Ken Mazursky
Brad Schneider
Scott Zeller
Danny Schwab
Keith Simon

2nd Place: Eskimo Pie

Adam Moschin
Jason Drexler
Seth Silverman
Adam Cantor
Cole Klapman
Jon Provus
Josh Reich

3rd Place: Cherry (Tie)

Scott Eggener
Mike Mandel
Justin Hirsch
Ben Cabonargi
Alex Jacobs
Robert Berland
Brian Millman

3rd Place: Blueberry (Tie)

Ed Schotz
Eric Saltzman
Mike Wohlstadter
Brett Kaufman
Tony Schatz
Jason Siegal
Adam Liebamn

Division B--Rec Hall

1st Place: Raspberry

Gregg Feinstein
Jordan Batt
Jeff Bloomberg
Danny Barbakoff
Mitch Gordon
Danny Shapiro
Matt Glick

2nd Place: Lemon

Jeff Fagel
Eric Helfand
Eric Marder
Zach Strauss
Jon Newman
Chad Lurie
Adam Levko

3rd Place: Boysenberry

Jason Smith
Josh Abrams
Robert Resnick
Brett Schwartz
Neal Goby
Andy Evans
Eric Weiss

TRIVIA

When in the course of trivial events it becomes necessary to run a program for a second year, one must try and come up with yet more names for pies or cakes. With 170 or so campers, teams were difficult to make. Yet, in the spirit of Alexander Pope and Lewis Carroll, we persevered.

The object of our Trivial Challenge was to answer as many questions as possible from the various categories represented. For each correct answer a slice of "pie" was awarded to each team of seven or eight players, (actually the awards were tiny pieces of paper sliced like pies.) Then they were stapled to a mock cardboard pie tin.

From Literature to Camp Lore, questions baffled, amused, and challenged even the most trivial minds. Due to a little precipitation, the camp was split into two divisions. The teams really "cooked" in competition, "cutting" out the other pies & cakes, "slicing up" their adversaries, "piecing" together victories for the following teams:

Division A--Dining Hall

1st Place: Coconut

Jon Goldman
Lukas Gelman
Ken Mazursky
Brad Schneider
Scott Zeller
Danny Schwab
Keith Simon

2nd Place: Eskimo Pie

Adam Moschin
Jason Drexler
Seth Silverman
Adam Cantor
Cole Klapman
Jon Provus
Josh Reich

3rd Place: Cherry (Tie)

Scott Eggener
Mike Mandel
Justin Hirsch
Ben Cabonargi
Alex Jacobs
Robert Berland
Brian Millman

3rd Place: Blueberry (Tie)

Ed Schotz
Eric Saltzman
Mike Wohlstadter
Brett Kaufman
Tony Schatz
Jason Siegal
Adam Liebamn

Division B--Rec Hall

1st Place: Raspberry

Gregg Feinstein
Jordan Batt
Jeff Bloomberg
Danny Barbakoff
Mitch Gordon
Danny Shapiro
Matt Glick

2nd Place: Lemon

Jeff Fagel
Eric Helfand
Eric Marder
Zach Strauss
Jon Newman
Chad Lurie
Adam Levko

3rd Place: Boysenberry

Jason Smith
Josh Abrams
Robert Resnick
Brett Schwartz
Neal Goby
Andy Evans
Eric Weiss

ORIENTAL NIGHT

"Ah Sooo!" It was remarkable to see the entire camp dress up for our annual Oriental Night. From bathrobes, to headbands, to more creative costumes, all campers seemed to get into the mood. Jeremy Parker, Ira Rosen, and Brett Kaufman all dressed wonderfully!

The Kitchen Staff knocked themselves out to prepare a dynamic, delicious, and delectable feast of Beef & Chicken Teriyaki, egg rolls, (from scratch) won-ton soup, oriental vegetables with bean sprouts & black mushrooms, and of course, our own fortune cookies, with special fortunes about our staff and Junior Counsellors. Did you find your counsellor in a fortune cookie? Of course no peanut butter and jelly was even requested because the food was so wonderful!

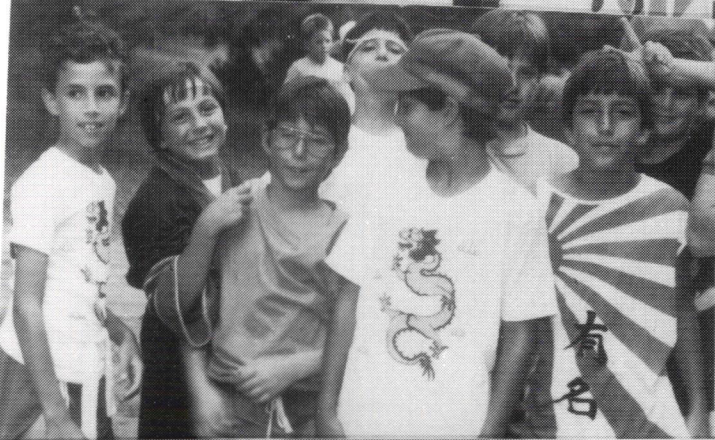

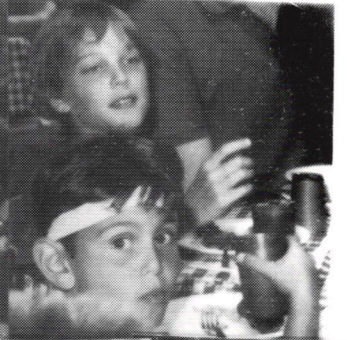

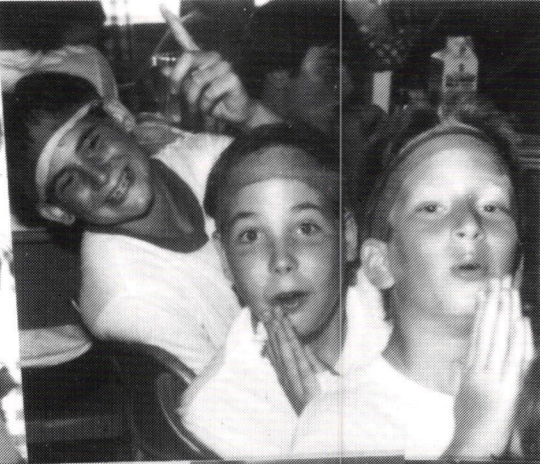

The Dining Hall was decorated and we even sat in a new table arrangement similar to a giant square. Pine branches and table decorations completed the mood. Oriental music courtesy of Brett Schwartz was well received.

After a brief free period, we all assembled at the "Chinese Half-Moon (Horseshoe)" and had some ancient oriental exhibitions of comedy and culture. Of course Scott Rubin brought both the comedy and culture in his haiku poetry renditions. Who could forget Danny & Jason Drexler challenging the dreaded Benjy Schwartz and his entourage, Chris Thake, Jason Charles, Eric Schneider and Scott Eggener, to a sumo wrestling match? Last minute substitutions for the "white knights" made them victorious. No one could beat the Oriental Frog at the rope wrestling on the cinderblock but Mark Pellegrino tried. Other challenged and some answered. Robert Resnick boldly challenged Mike Jelinek and emerged the victor.

Kenny Lapins introduced a strange 2000 year old fossil of a man who entertained for a while. And then, after a haiku about canteen, the Oriental night passed into history. Next year perhaps we will have Peking Duck, eh kitchen?

ORIENTAL NIGHT

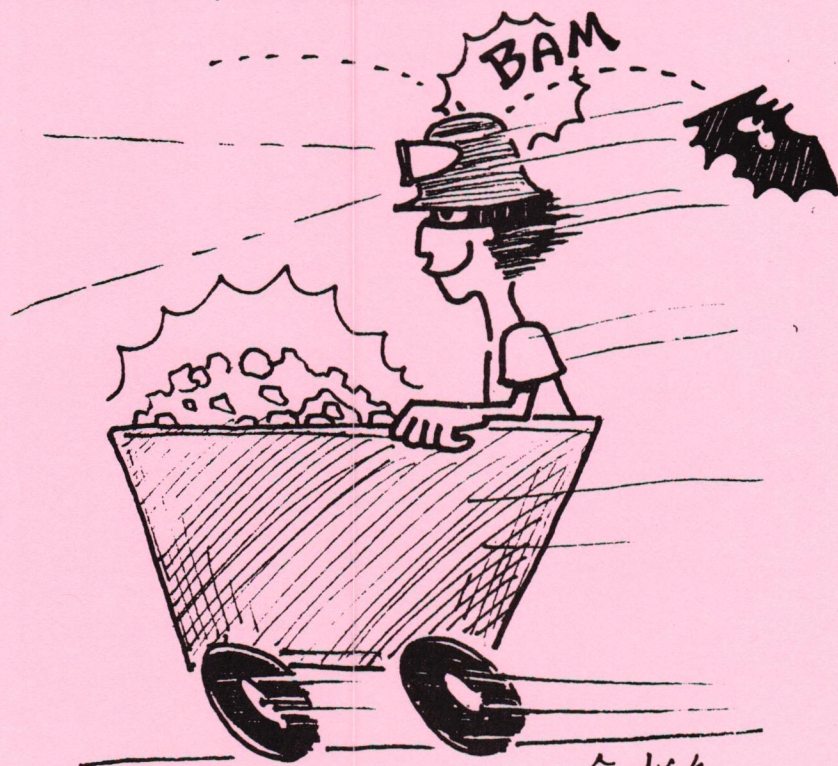

GOLD RUSH

"What color will it be THIS year," asks Evan Swidler, Josh Salter, Jon Venetos, & Cole Klapman referring to the color of the rocks for Gold Rush Day. No one, except the crusty old prospectors, would say anything about that state secret until they arrived later.

All morning the cabin groups prepared their booths for the carnival which would take place later that afternoon. Crepe paper, posterboard, thumb tacks and miles and miles of rope were in hot demand all morning. Balloons, darts, and other items were spared from being passed out until noontime. Cabin 15 prepared their "Nam Land" while Cabin 5 took pictures of their favorite counsellors to toss darts at. Cabin 10 caught turtles and prepared their Zoomer machine for the afternoon's adventure, (they recorded a sound effects tape as well.) By mid-morning all booths were set up. Costumes for Cabin 6 & 3 completed the atmosphere necessary for a side show!

After a restless rest hour, all campers & staff assembled by the side of the Rec Hall to await the arrival of EB & ZEEK. Unfortunately, Zeek didn't appear--he send a French Fur Trapper, COLE MINOR instead. After several awful jokes, and some bawdy stories, the location of the silver rocks was disclosed and off went the campers with their trusty silver-toting sacks to collect as much as possible on the athletic fields. Weighing the silver, the assayers gave money to those brave prospectors who brought they prize nuggets to the canteen. Among the first to arrive were Adam Levko, Scott Barbakoff, "Pumpkin" Strauss, & Adam Cantor.

The rest is history; the sponge toss "volunteers," the dunking machine "participants," the contracts taken out by campers to nail staff, the ninja phantom hit men, candy distributed by the Chief, darts at Dudzak's picture, the bucking bronco ride, Keith Radeke & Ryan Lefton on the surfboard, Scott Segel as Buddy Holly, and Brian Jacobs as Ike Eisenhower in Cabin 6's Living Juke Box.

Congratulations to Cabin SIX for their 1st place victory, Cabins TWO , NINE, & FOURTEEN for their honorable mentions.

All in all, good, clean active fun was had by all and as the prospectors faded into the proverbial sunset, Scott Hammerman and Ian Greendale mused, "Who were those guys??"

Eb & Cole,
Prospectorus
Silveratum

Gold Rush Booth Activities

Cabin One--Water Slide	Cabin Nine--Basketball
Cabin Two--Casino with Plinko	Cabin Ten--Zoomer & Turtle Races
Cabin Three--Beauty Contest	Cabin Eleven--Wrestlemania
Cabin Four--Hacky Sack Can Toss	Cabin Twelve--Tattoo Club
Cabin Five--Dart Throw at Pix	Cabin Fourteen-Sponge Toss
Cabin Six--Living Juke Box	Cabin Fifteen-Nam Land II
Cabin Seven--Dunk Tank	CIT Empire--Balance Land, Bucking Bronco
Cabin Eight--Shaving Cream Balloons

GOLD RUSH

