

COMPETITION

Competition! During the first four weeks after cabin clean-up campers reported to a field, a court, or a diamond to participate in a team sport. After a team in each league won the best out of 4 games, new teams were selected and the series began again.

During the second four weeks one team was created before the sports spectacular and one after. Listed below are the team names and their final standings for the first and second four weeks.

SPORTS & SPECTACULAR

Throughout the history of our great country there have been many noteworthy events that have changed the course of our lives. These events will long be remembered for their impact on the people of our great nation.

Therefore, in the illustrious tradition of Watergate, Abscam, Mt. St. Helens, the Great Depression, and double-digit inflation. Camp Waupaca and the United States of America once again conspired to bring us the Camp Waupaca Sports Spectacular. After all was said and done and the last chair was taken in the Musical Chairs Competition, it was the North Team that proved to be the winner.

THE WAR!

It seemed like a simple zonk at dinner. Chris Malcolm got Thom Aylesworth and Thom returned the fire. But, soon we realized that this was no ordinary Mess Hall spoof. THE WAR WAS HEATING UP! Shortly, other staff started to argue. Tom Ames and the JC's had a misunderstanding, and Ken Lapins and Mike Scharmer collided, as did the Land and Water staff. Jeff Spang and Sam Kedzierski had a spat and Dennis Bravick lead a satirical Monopoly game to poke fun at the Land Staff. And, after the "Do This, Do That" Game at the Horseshoe, the war chiefs were picked and the Blue and White Color War was underway. Thom Aylesworth and Mike Scharmer matched brains and braun in an attempt to defeat one another on the athletic fields, in the Mess Hall, and on the Waterfront. At the Dining Hall, the flags were raised in the traditional style and the Super Relay was run.

Congratulations to Thom Aylesworth and the Blue Team.

Complete team list follow.
