

C.I.T.s & STAFF

We saw some good movies like Crocodile Dundee--
The week after that we saw Rambo, Part III.
Our counselors, they drove their cars awfully fast,
While we threw toilet paper at cars that we past.

We covered the cabins on Sunday Rest Hours,
And controlled the kids with all of our power.
We did these things and more as a group--
But now the individual CIT scoops.

There is Mike with his bed head & Steve with his gas,
And Josh & Dave on the lake making a pass.
There's Scottie from Texas, and Jason's high squeak,
And Jon Gordon who thought the Cubs knew no defeat.

There's Brett who won Tribes, and Charlie who sailed,
And Jon Kully who tried to be the ultimate male!
There's Mike & Matt who liked D & D,
And Alex & Dave who just loved to ski!

And then there is me who just loves to sing,
About playing right field & the joy that it brings.
Well, it all sounds fine & dandy
Now I'll go out and drink & eat candy!

CIT Village The Second Chapter

In view of what has happened these past four weeks, we must say that it has been a most enjoyable experience. The Sports Spectacular was won by the East. They were led by Alex Jacobs & Bryan Hoffman. There were some let downs. Jon Gordon was found to have an "unusual" picture in his Cubs Yearbook.

Charlie was the big card shark. We all had some run ins with some "horses" I mean local town girls. They were so called 14 year olds but we speculated their ages to be 12 or so. Of course Dave Weitzenfeld enjoyed every minute.

Paul Warshauer suffered a pool hustle defeat to a bowling alley owner. He also lost a "bet" about the capitol of Kentucky to Charlie. Doug liked to wear his silly bubushkas, the wrong way of course while driving his Blue Bomber. He & Chris Clarke did advance to the finals in the tennis tournament.

A new idea was introduced this year for Gold Rush day: Shooting bottle rockets for distance down a safety guide wire. We didn't win, but had a great time doing it.

The camp out had only four brave CITs on it because the others chickened out! We did go on a night light hike (it was a FULL moon) where we talked about all sorts of things. Alex wanted go home quickly!

The later days of camp brought hot weather which brought out "the best" in all of us. We lost our Challenge softball game to cabin 14, but we tried!

Doug continued to muck drop Charlie & Paul went sailing as much as time permitted. Matt Tenny was a D & D assistant teacher & Chief Blowhard when we did the Sagamore night. Mike MArgolese once in a while wore shorts, Brett Schwartz cut his pants into a skirt of sorts. His pal, Aaron Kramer liked his army boots & knives.

All in all the CITs did well and are proud of our accomplishments. Thanks!
